

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PELEE

REPEALED

BY-LAW NO. 2018-33

Being a by-law to designate a Community Emergency Management Coordinator (CEMC) for the Township of Pelee and to repeal By-Law No. 2015-40

WHEREAS the Province of Ontario has enacted the Emergency Management Act mandating that each community have an emergency response plan.

AND WHEREAS each municipal emergency plan has contingencies for the four steps in the emergency planning: mitigation/prevention, preparedness, response and recovery.

AND WHEREAS the Province encourages partnership in emergency plans and has mandated the development of mutual assistance programs for its standards in the comprehensive level of emergency preparedness.

AND WHEREAS Section 10 (1) of the Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act (O. Reg. 380/04) indicated that every municipality shall designate an employee of said municipality as its Community Emergency Management Coordinator (CEMC);

NOW THEREFORE THE COUNCIL OF THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PELEE ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. THAT Kevin Long be hereby designated as the Acting Community Emergency Management Coordinator (CEMC) for the Township of Pelee effective immediately.
2. THAT the CEMC and/or the alternate shall coordinate the development and implementation of the municipality's emergency management program.
3. THAT the CEMC shall report to the municipality's emergency management program committee.
4. AND THAT By-Law 2015-40 is hereby repealed with the passing of this by-law.
